of the 20th century the gods book 01 its dark dont go out this saying has been passed down in can lao village for many years specifically when it was passed down cannot be proven however this saying is an unquestionable truth in can lao village grandma si looked at the sunset gradually disappearing behind the mountain and felt anxious as the sun set the last ray of sunlight disappeared the sky and earth suddenly became extremely quiet without any sound the darkness from the west gradually covered this place swallowing the mountains rivers roads trees then flooded to engulf can lao village four ancient stone statues were erected in the four corners of can lao village the stone statues were mottled and dated so far back that even grandma si did not know who carved these stone statues or when they were erected here an analysis of the literary values of hurston s novel as well as its reception from largely dismissive reviews in 1937 through a revival of interest in the 1960s and its recent establishment as a major american novel
